Invotex Group Director Abby J. Weinstock Earns CFE Designation

Baltimore, MD – July 10, 2006 Invotex Group, a national accounting, financial and economic consulting and intellectual property management firm, is pleased to announce that Abby J. Weinstock, a Director with the firm, has been awarded the globally preferred “Certified Fraud Examiner” (CFE) designation by the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (ACFE), the world’s leading provider of anti-fraud training and education.

Ms. Weinstock has more than 10 years of experience providing a variety of consulting services, including matters involving accounting, financial, and economic issues. In addition, she has experience with intellectual property litigation matters, auditing, and money laundering investigations. Ms. Weinstock holds a BA from Washington University and an MBA from Georgetown University.

The ACFE’s Board of Regents awards this designation only to select professionals who meet a stringent set of criteria, including character, experience, and education. Ms. Weinstock has successfully met these criteria and now joins the ranks of over 16,000 business and government professionals worldwide who have also earned the CFE certification.

CFEs have the ability to: Examine data and records to detect and trace fraudulent transactions; interview suspects to obtain information and confessions; write investigation reports, advise clients as to their findings and testify at trial; be well-versed in the law as it relates to fraud and fraud investigations; and understand the underlying factors that motivate individuals to commit fraud. CFEs on six continents have investigated more than one million suspected cases of civil and criminal fraud.

About the ACFE

The ACFE, the world’s premier provider of training and education for fraud detection and deterrence, has over 37,000 members, sponsors more than 103 chapters worldwide and provides anti-fraud educational materials to over 100 universities. Identified as “the premier financial sleuthing organization” by The Wall Street Journal, the ACFE has captured national and international media attention.
