

Implant Ingenuity Retains Invotex Group to Commercialize Dental Implant Products

Philadelphia, PA – Invotex Group announced that it has been engaged by Toronto-based Implant Ingenuity, Inc., as its exclusive representative to assist in the commercialization of the company’s dental implant technology and products, which includes seeking licensing partners for the technology and assisting with raising financing if necessary.

Implant Ingenuity specializes in developing proprietary dental implant tools and related technologies. Over the past few years, Implant Ingenuity has developed, patented and prototyped a number of fundamental innovations in this field. Implant Ingenuity was founded by two dentists and an engineering design group, bringing together a number of complementary disciplines in the fields of engineering and dental implantology.
