

Invotex Group Welcomes Summer Interns

Baltimore, MD – June 6, 2007 Invotex Group, a national accounting, financial and economic consulting and intellectual property management firm, is pleased to welcome students from leading universities, including the University of Virginia, University of Maryland, Kenyon College, Washington University of St. Louis and Bucknell University, who have joined the firm as part of its summer internship program.

The firm's student interns comprise undergraduate and graduate students majoring in such subjects as finance, economics and business management. Under the mentorship of firm consultants, Invotex interns participate on engagement teams in the firm's core practice areas, including litigation support, reorganization, valuation and economic analysis, to name a few.

Invotex Group provides accounting and financial consulting services to the business and legal communities, financial institutions, insurance companies and governmental entities in matters involving disputes, investigations, reorganizations, insurance and valuations. Invotex also offers advisory services for intellectual property owners, including licensing, technology evaluation and license compliance, asset management and enforcement of IP rights. The firm, headquartered in Baltimore, Maryland, also has offices in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and Washington, DC.
