

Invotex Group Announces Promotions

Baltimore, MD – August 28, 2008 Invotex Group, a national accounting, financial and economic consulting and intellectual property management firm, has announced promotions of professionals throughout the firm.

Michael J. Petron, CFE was promoted to Director. He provides consulting services in a variety of commercial damages, forensic accounting, intellectual property and statistical litigation matters. Mr. Petron received his bachelor's degree from the George Washington University and his master's degree in statistics from George Mason University. He is a Certified Fraud Examiner and is a member of the American Statistical Association, the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners and the Washington Statistical Society.

Charles W. Rains, CPA/ABV was promoted to Director. Mr. Rains has more than 10 years of business valuation and litigation support experience, including commercial damage calculations, lost profit analyses, forensic accounting, bankruptcy, and intellectual property valuations. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Towson State University and is a Certified Public Accountant and Accredited in Business Valuation. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, American Society of Appraisers and Maryland Association of Certified Public Accountants, Business Valuation, Forensic & Litigation Services Committee.

Neil A. Eisgruber was promoted to Manager. He is responsible for providing consulting services, including but not limited to litigation support, industry and technical research and financial analysis. Mr. Eisgruber's experience includes financial, data and damage analysis relating to patent infringement, trademark infringement and breach of contract matters in industries such as information technology, pharmaceutical, real estate and insurance. He received a Masters of Business Administration from the University of Maryland and a Bachelor of Science from Virginia Tech.

-more-

Victor Y. Lipnitsky, CPA was promoted to Manager. Mr. Lipnitsky has more than six years experience in accounting and financial consulting, including all aspects of litigation support and expert witness preparation, tax, auditing and equity research. He has a bachelor's degree from the State University of New York and is a member of the Maryland Association of Certified Public Accountants and the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners. Mr. Lipnitsky is a Certified Public Accountant.

Lynton L. Markham was promoted to Manager. She is responsible for providing consulting services, including but not limited to litigation support, industry and technical research, and financial analysis within a broad range of industries. Ms. Markham's experience also includes financial and economic data analysis and modeling. She received her Masters of Business Administration from the University of Maryland and her Bachelor of Science degree from Cornell University.

Julie A. Neal, CFA was promoted to Manager. She has nearly 15 years experience providing financial analysis and a variety of consulting services, including litigation and receivership services. Ms. Neal has experience with all aspects of the expert witness preparation process: creating document discovery requests, analyzing and modeling financial and economic data, assisting with the drafting of expert reports for court submission, creating trial exhibits, and preparing expert witnesses for deposition and trial. She holds a bachelor's and master's degree from Loyola College of Maryland and is a Chartered Financial Analyst. She is a member of the CFA Institute and the Baltimore CFA Society.

-more-

Andrea R. Chesney was promoted to Senior Consultant. Ms. Chesney is responsible for providing consulting services including litigation support, industry and technical research, and financial analysis within a broad range of industries. She has more than eight years experience in intellectual property research and management including: drafting and reviewing technology license agreements for compliancy, patent valuation, cost forecasting, preparation of patent and trademark applications, inventor and company searching, patent family researching and modeling, patent and non-patent document procurement, patent due diligence, and general maintenance of patent portfolios. She holds a bachelor's degree from West Chester University. She is a member of the Licensing Executives Society.

Zachary Hess was promoted to Senior Consultant. He is responsible for providing consulting services, including but not limited to litigation support, business valuation, industry and technical research, and financial analysis. Mr. Hess holds a bachelor's degree from the Indiana University of Pennsylvania.

Kimberly B. Jordan was promoted to Senior Consultant/IT Specialist. Ms. Jordan has experience as an information technology specialist, which includes expertise in computing, networking, database programming, and numerous software applications. She additionally is responsible for providing consulting services, including but not limited to litigation support, technical research and analysis, and electronic discovery. Ms. Jordan received her bachelor's degree from the Johns Hopkins University.

Lisa N. Ly was promoted to Senior Consultant. She is responsible for providing consulting services, including intellectual property transactions, royalty forecasts, litigation support, industry and technical research, and financial analysis within a broad range of industries. Ms. Ly earned her bachelor's degree from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania. She is a member of the Licensing Executives Society.

-more-

Jenny L. Reese was promoted to Senior Consultant. She has nearly eight years experience providing a variety of accounting and auditing as well as financial consulting services. Ms. Reese's accounting and auditing experience includes three years internal auditing experience in addition to four years as a field and staff auditor. She has a Bachelors of Science degree from Villa Julie College and is a member of the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners and the Maryland Chapter of the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners.

About InvoTex Group

InvoTex Group (www.invoTex.com) provides accounting, financial and economic consulting services to clients including Fortune Global 500 corporations, major law firms, leading research universities and local, state, and federal governments and agencies around the country. The firm's highly credentialed experts and professional staff conduct economic and financial analyses to provide objective opinions and advice in matters involving complex transactions, disputes, investigations and examinations, reorganizations, insurance and valuations. InvoTex also offers advisory services for intellectual property owners, including licensing, technology evaluation and license compliance, asset management and enforcement of IP rights. The firm comprises experienced industry leaders, former public company financial executives, former international accounting and consulting firm ("Big 4") partners and seasoned consultants.

###

Contact:
Debbie Pavlik
Marketing Manager
dpavlik@invotex.com
410.824.6016