Invotex Damages Expert Testifies in Energy Transportation Group Patent Infringement Trial; Jury Awards $31 Million in Damages

Baltimore, MD – February 11, 2008 – In the Energy Transportation Group, Inc., v. Sonic Innovations, Inc., et al. (Civil Action No. 05-422) patent dispute in the U. S. District Court for the District of Delaware, Invotex® Group damages expert Terry L. Musika testified, on behalf of plaintiff Energy Transportations Group, that the amount of total damages adequate to compensate for the claimed infringement was $60 million. Two opposing damage experts, one from CRA International and another independent expert, testified that the total amount of damages adequate to compensate for infringement was $2 million. On Monday, February 4, 2008, the jury decided that the two Energy Transportations Group patents asserted against the defendants were valid and infringed and awarded damages of $31 million.
