

James B. Morris, CPA, joins Invotex Group as a Director in Firm's Insurance Practice

Baltimore, MD – October 29, 2007 – Invotex Group, a national accounting, financial and economic consulting and intellectual property management firm, has announced that James B. Morris, CPA, joined the firm as a Director in the firm's insurance practice.

Drawing upon his more than 25 years experience in the financial services industry, including more than 10 years insurance experience in the areas of risk assessment, risk mitigation, operations workflow analysis and design and internal audit, Jim will be responsible for providing services to the firm's insurance clients, including state insurance regulators.

"Jim brings to Invotex considerable experience in the areas of external and internal risk assessment and in the implementation of internal control analyses and testing pursuant to The Sarbanes Oxley Act of 2002," said Tom Finnell, Managing Director over the Insurance practice at Invotex. "In particular, his experience with the insurance industry will benefit the Insurance practice as it continues to grow."

Prior to joining Invotex, Mr. Morris was Director of Financial Controls for Old Mutual Financial Network where he was responsible for the analysis, identification and remediation of operating and financial control issues. He also served as a sitting member to the company's Governance and Risk Committee, Underwriting Committee and Reinsurance Committee, among others.

Prior to joining Old Mutual he played a significant role in directing the initial implementation of SOX requirements for the Direct Marketing Services Division of Aegon USA.

Morris has an MBA with a concentration in Finance from Loyola College in Maryland and a BS in Business Administration with a concentration in Accounting from Drexel University. He is a Certified Public Accountant and is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Maryland Association of Certified Public Accountants.
